Wailuku School Will

Hold Sale Tomorrow

Wailuku Public School leads Maui in its work in domestic economy. It has the reputation of serving the best meals from its school kitchen of any school on Maui and it has solved the problem of serving a really delicious meal at a lower price than any school in the Islands. So when it is announced that the school will hold a sale of cooked foods and other things more than ordinary interest attaches to such announcement.

Beginning at 10:30 tomorrow morning good things to eat will be on sale in the school building, all sorts of good things, and it is promised it will be the best place on Maui to make purchases for the Sunday dinner. Following the food sale there is to be a rummage sale, where some real bargains may be picked up.

Miss Lida Crickard, principal of the school, says that scholars and teachers alike have been working hard on the project which is designed to add to the school fund.

Pertinent Paragraphs

Supervisors to Meet—Maui County supervisors will hold the first session of their March meeting on Wednesday.

Chamber of Commerce—The March meeting of the Chamber of Commerce will be held in its rooms next Thursday.

Woman's Guild Meeting—The Woman's Guild, Church of the Good Shepherd will hold the regular monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. E. H. Parker, Kahului, next Tuesday, March 7 at 2:30 p. m.

Boston Store Back—Louis Amiel, sales manager of the Boston Store announces that his establishment will open its low price sale in the Orpheum next Thursday.

Soon Offers Bargains—George Soon of Kahului is announcing a bargain sale especially of men's, women's, and children's shoes but also of men's furnishing goods and gives attractive prices.

Change of Hours—Wailuku Hardware & Grocery Company, announces it will open earlier, at 6:30 and close at 5:30 instead of 7:30, thus allowing more satisfactory hours for its employees.

Builds up Business—W. W. Dismukes, whose advertisement appears in this issue, reports that he is building up a fine business for men's shirts sold direct from producer to consumer eliminating middle profits.

Recital Tonight—Invitations are out for the organ recital which Mrs. Villiers will give tonight in the Church of the Good Shepherd. Her recitals are always enjoyable and popular and the program this year is particularly attractive.

Teachers Meet Tomorrow—There will be a meeting of the Maui Teachers Association tomorrow in Wailuku School when the subject of delegates to the mainland teachers' convention will be considered. Professors Flanders and Henke of the University of Hawaii will probably give talks as well.

Ready for Delivery—Bonds of the Maui County Fair and Racing Association were ready for delivery to subscribers yesterday at both the Bank of Maui in Wailuku and Baldwin Bank of Kahului. Purchasers are requested not to delay in taking up their purchases.

Rehearsals go Well—Rehearsals for "Nothing but the Truth," the play to be given for the benefit of Kahului Community House funds, are reported as going forward splendidly. It is also reported that interest in the coming production is keen and a good demand shown in advance applications for seats.

Forced in Doors—Wet weather spoiled the plan of holding a carnival dance on Market Street, Tuesday night and caused a going in doors as the Catholic Ladies Aid announced would be the case should there be rain. There was a good attendance in spite of the rain, however, and the affair was thoroughly enjoyable though receipts for the Sisters' Cottage fund were not so large as would have been if original plans could have been followed.

Stock Taken Up—Seven hundred and fifty shares of Maui Electric shares were sold by Hawaiian Commercial and Sugar Company and Kahului Railroad and the proceeds invested in Maui County Fair and Racing Association bonds. The shares were offered to stockholders of February 18 pro rata to their holdings and were immediately taken by them. There is a ready demand for the stock of the company and larger offerings would have been absorbed.

Use of Library Even In Short Month Has Splendid Increases

Significant of the growing use of the Maui County Free Library is the showing made in the report of Miss Marion Morse, the librarian, for the month of February when an increase of more than 50 percent over January was shown. This increase was made in the face of the facts that last month was a short month in the calendar and for four days of the month there was no service rendered because the library was moving from old to its present quarters.

In Wailuku in February circulation increased from 969, the January figures, to 1444. Since moving the reading room is being used even more than the old room, especially by children and in day times.

Reports from the outside branches for February could not be secured at this time but the January reports of such service from nine branches showed a circulation of 1223.

Last month 194 books were cataloged, 340 were shipped to branches which brought the total out at the branches up to 1116.

Mellor Gets Contract For New Work at Hana Wharf

HONOLULU, March 2—The harbor board at its meeting today announced the letting of the contract for a new wharf shed and tracks at Hana to E. C. Mellor of Wailuku. Mellor's bid for the wharf shed, track and approach is $12,500 to be completed in 75 days. The only other bidder was A. S. Cantin of this city whose offer is $17,274, work to be completed in 90 days.

A. F. Judd appeared before the board for Kaeleku Sugar Co. on the question of ownership of the sugar shed at Hana. Two months is allowed for investigation and meantime Judd gave permission to Kipahulu Sugar Co. to use half of the old shed.

Three Happy Events Make This Date Most Memorable

In the Weight family this date, March 3, has a triple significance and importance and is being celebrated today. In the past it has had only double importance but an event of this morning adds further to its interest.

Thirty five years ago Mr. and Mrs. George Weight were married and they celebrate their anniversary today. One of their daughters' thirty-fifth anniversary falls on March 3 and this morning a ten pound grandson, was presented as an anniversary gift by Mr. and Mrs. George N. Weight.

So it is natural there should be more than ordinary happiness in the Weight family today.

Hawaiian Music and Dance Sure to Please

Plans for the musical entertainment and dance of the Hawaiian Women's Club to be held on the evening of March 18, in the Territorial Building, are going forward steadily and the tentative program assures a pleasant affair. The proceeds of the entertainment will be used for the purposes of the Club which are the aid and assistance of Hawaiians who may be in need of such assistance and other charitable work.

The Hawaiian Women's Club was formed when it was desired to raise funds for the securing of a motion picture machine for the social hall at Kula Sanitarium and its usefulness has been demonstrated in similar good works on numerous occasions.

Kahului Kindergarten To be Reopened Again

Kahului Kindergarten which was closed because of shortage of funds in the department of public instruction is to be reopened. Rev. George De Kay said yesterday. Funds for the continuance of the important work have been secured.

Closing of the kindergarten brought consternation to the Japanese community in Kahului whom the kindergarten mostly benefited and steps were at once taken to see if it could not be continued. Rev. George H. De Kay and Rev. E. E. Pleasant were seen, the Japanese agreed to raise half of the necessary funds and Maui Aid Association will furnish the other half.

Mrs. Kondo, American wife of the Japanese minister at Puenene will be teacher.

Interesting Points Involved In Case

Questions of law that are decidedly interesting are involved in the case of M. Hirotsu vs George S. Aiken heard in the Wailuku magistrate's court by Judge Mossman this week, a decision to be handed down within the next few days. The case arises out of the passing of a raised check by "Fruax" several weeks ago. Eugene Murphy is for the plaintiff and Eric Vincent for the defense. It is not improbable that either way the case is decided it will be taken direct to the Supreme Court.

At the trial Vincent confessed judgment for his client in $20, the amount for which it is asserted the check was originally filled out and Murphy declined to accept such judgment for his client, claiming $120, the amount the check called for when it was cashed by his client.

Questions of negligence in the issuance of the check, contributory negligence on the part of Hirotsu in cashing it, a difference between an altering of a document and the filling in of a blank space in a document and several other issues are involved. On some of them there are different lines of decisions and there are some points that appear not to have been adjudicated by the courts of the Territory.

Members of Faculty Of University Here

Two members of the faculty of the University of Hawaii, Prof. J. K. Flanders and Prof. L. A. Henke are on Maui this week visiting the schools in the interests of University Extension work and giving some talks elsewhere.

Professor Flanders was first to arrive, coming Tuesday and spoke at the High School that day. Wednesday he went up Kula way and that night spoke at the Sanitarium where there were about 30 to hear him. Yesterday both of the visitors went to Pala School where the experiment in instruction in sugar culture is being undertaken and later to Maunaloa seminary. In the afternoon they went to Lahaina where they spoke at a well attended meeting last night. Today is an open date, tomorrow morning they will attend the Maui Teachers meeting and in the evening will speak at a meeting at Pauwela cannery.

Professor Henke deals especially with agricultural subjects in his talks while Professor Flanders deals with vocational training largely.

FRANCE WILL PAY

WASHINGTON, March 2—(Associated Press)—"Thirty nine million citizens of France stand squarely behind France's obligations and I am one of the thirty nine million." So said French Ambassador Jusserand when addressing the opening session of the National Rivers and Harbors improvement congress. He was loudly applauded after the speech.

LOS ANGELES, March 2—(Associated Press)—Police announced that an investigation into the affairs of the six drug ring suspects that were recently arrested revealed that they had no connection with the Taylor murder.

Stone Crusher Will Be Started Next Week

Next week is expected to see the start of the new stone crusher of the Kahului railroad. It is awaiting the installation by Maui Electric Company of a transformer and some heavier wires, the materials having come in on the last Wilhelmnia. It has turned its engines over and knows they are in working order and now waits for the added power. It will be the largest individual consumer of power from the Electric Company and special provisions had to be made for handling the added load.

Maui Electric Company has already installed several of the eight new transformers purchased to improve its service and the others soon are to be installed, when better service may be expected. It is hoped the rise and fall of the current can be cured but if not other steps will be taken to secure a further steadying. A varying draft upon the current is responsible for present conditions.

Manager Blair of the company says it must be remembered that for ten years the plant practically stood still and so fell far behind the requirements and the demands that fell upon it when taken over by the new company. A survey is now being made to determine just what are the requirements to put the system into the shape necessary to meet Maui's needs.

Obituary

MRS. KIYOKU YASUI

Wailuku's Japanese community was thrown into mourning yesterday afternoon by the announcement of the death of Kiyoko Yasui, wife of S. Yasui, editor and proprietor of Maui Shintun. Death came at 3 o'clock at the hospital of Dr. Tokuku after an illness of two or three weeks. Funeral services will be held at 4 o'clock this afternoon.

Mrs. Yasui came to the Islands as a Japanese school teacher and had taught for nine years, one year on Hawaii and eight years on this Island. She was 29 years of age at the time of her death.

Very popular in Japanese circles and prominent in affairs, vice-president of the Japanese Women's Society, Mrs. Yasui was a woman of fine education and large attainments who will be much missed.

The husband and three children survive.

MRS. F. G. DUARTE

At the age of 83 and after a residence of 40 years on Maui, Mrs. F. G. Duarte passed away at her home on Tuesday night and funeral services were held late Wednesday afternoon. Life ended after a long illness.

Mrs. Duarte is survived by her husband, three sons and two daughters.

TRAVERS CITY, Mich., Feb. 27—(Associated Press)—Michigan's apple belt is a sorry spectacle and thousands of trees are down and communication wires wrecked as the result of the cold wave that has kept the country icebound since the middle of last week. Communication was re-established today when the cities and towns surrounding here broke their frozen bonds.

SABBATH OBSERVANCE

Editor of Maui News:

The American Sabbath is our oldest national holiday and one of the vitally fundamental institutions of our national life. In that it is one of the chief causes for our national eminence today. Therefore it is not only irreligious but unpatriotic to dedicate this holiday by using it for other purposes than were originally intended.

The original purpose of our Colonial fathers for the day, as I believe, was physical, mental, moral and spiritual refreshment. For this purpose all industrial and commercial activities on that day were reduced to the essential minimum. All places doing business simply for profit can not be considered essential, and should be closed on Sunday, as congress is at present considering doing for the District of Columbia. For this reason I believe the Wild West Show planned for exhibition on a near Sunday at the Maui County Fair Grounds would not be in keeping with the purpose of the day.

All foreigners who come to our land should be favorably impressed with our Christian Sabbath. If we do not honor it and cherish it, not many generations hence there will be no Christian Sabbath in Hawaii.
